

Ashley Park House

Ashley Park House is a peaceful haven on the edge of Lough Ourna , and if you are looking for a beautiful venue, steeped in character offering quality , style and attentive service in the tradition of the Irish country house then it is the perfect setting for your perfect day. Set in 76 acres of beech woodland and formal gardens, the historic country house giving a very beautiful backdrop for your wedding photos, surrounded by beech woodlands and gazing over the lake.

With an excellent reputation for hosting weddings over the past 15 years at Ashley Park House we host weddings as if they were for our own family. When you and your guests drive down the tree lined avenue which winds around the lake to the house entrance for a drinks reception of your choice the bridal party can relax in the drawing room by the fire or on summer days enjoy the view of the lake from the veranda and lawn while having some canapés and a light snack. We can arrange a harpist or piper to play while people chat before dinner. In the evening the wedding party are called to the dining room where the guests will sit and the best man can call on everyone to welcome the Bride and Groom to the first meal of their married life.

Choosing the perfect wedding venue is like choosing the perfect partner, you look around, make calls, size some up and then when you least expect it you stumble across a location that will stay with you forever. Ashley Park House has a magical quality to it that you won't forget. Strolling through the gardens wandering around the lake, sipping champagne on the veranda and having photos taken, you will get to spend the best day of your life here.

Ashley Park House can have a licensed to hold a civil wedding ceremony or the traditional wedding where the wedding ceremony is held in a church. The bridal party arrive back at Ashley Park House to a hot punch or a drink of their choice knowing they will be the only guests at the house; they will have total privacy. We may not be able to arrange the weather but we will do everything in our power to ensure everything on your wedding day goes off with out a
